School districts are funded primarily by the State of California budget. Each January, the Governor presents a proposed budget for the fiscal year beginning the following July. While state funding for schools is not officially determined until mid-June, districts begin developing their preliminary budget for the following school year based on the Governor's TK-12 budget proposal. At this Study Session, the Board of Education will have an opportunity to review the impacts of the Governor's TK-12 budget proposal for the District.

Recommendation: It is recommended the Board of Education review the Governor's TK-12 budget proposal.

3.3 Presentation of 2023-2024 Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP)
January Update

To view the entire presentations click here:
